The Era of Good Feelings was the name applied to the period in the United States corresponding with the term of President James Monroe, from 1817 to 1825. The phrase is believed to have been coined by a Boston newspaper shortly after Monroe took office. The basis for the phrase is that the United States, following the War of 1812, settled into a period of rule by one party, the Democratic-Republicans of Monroe (which had their roots in the Jeffersonian Republicans). And, following the problems of the administration of James Madison, which included economic problems, protests against the war, and the burning of the White House and Capitol by British troops, the Monroe years seemed relatively placid. And Monroe's presidency represented stability as it was a continuation of the "Virginia dynasty," as four of the first five presidents, Jefferson, Madison, and Monroe, had been Virginians. Yet in some ways, this period in history was misnamed. There were a number of tensions developing in the United States. For instance, a major crisis over the practice of enslavement in America was averted by the passage of the Missouri Compromise (and that solution was, of course, only temporary). The very controversial election of 1824, which became known as "The Corrupt Bargain," brought an end to this period, and ushered in the troubled presidency of John Quincy Adams. ne lyregruS retfA yrevocR decnahE[SARE solocotorp ed ollorrased lEotxtnoC. s0281 eht ni rrearc laciitlop s'noskca] werdnA fo esir eht ni rotcaf a erez 1281AAAe9181 sraey eht gnirud pihsdrah cimonoce eht tuoba stnemteseR .setaS detinU eht ni scenereffid lanoitces etabreaxe depleh hcihw ,htuoS eht ni tlef ylpeed tsom erez 9181 fo cinaP eht fo stceffe ehtT .ymonoce naciremA eht tuohguorht daerps smelborp eht dna ,secirp nottoc ni llaf a yb detpmorp saw sisirc ehtT .9181 fo cinaP eht .yrutnec ht91 eht fo noisserpD Laicnif taery tsrif eht saw noitarsimda eht gnirud Melborp Rojaim Rehtona .Demnrevog laredef eht Toel Eht because tmevealsne decitcarp taht taht tatatas that sa noinu eht ot ot ot yoossim fo noissimda eht dna[esimormpoc irht yb dedicid yllaunveve saw noissimda s'ruoosim s'ruoosim .sergnoc atusv tsrif eht detneserper of .Jotopac eht ni detabed saw ,.0281 ybrae .Tetes. In urology, his main application focuses on patients undergoing radical cystectomy. Systematic objection of the available literature of the Eras protocols applied to patients who intervened in radical cystectomy, both at the level of perioperative results and in the analysis of its implementation. The acquisition of the tests carried out bibliographic bases in the electronic database Pubmed, Embase, Cochrane and Scopus, using the terms "cistectomy", "enhanced recovery after arising" and "Fast-Track". Randomized and non-randomized studies have been selected that compare the implementation of an Eras protocol in patients undergoing radical cystectomy in front of a traditional protocol. Floves of rehearsals identified 869 articles; 25 have been selected for the final analysis: 22 randomized and 3 randomized studies. No differences were detected in the demographic characteristics between the different studies. Statically significant differences have been identified in favor of the Eras Protocol at the time of hospital hospital stay, a greater rate of complications, recovery and intestinal recovery time first year. In the analysis of the protocols, a high variability was detected, both in the number of etem and in all implementation. Conclusions The multidisciplinary character and the number of the Eras protocols themes involve high heterogeneity in its implementation. Randomized studies are required, standardization during reporting and analysis of the results, as well as a systematic analysis of the subsequent adherence to increase the comparability between the groups. Lincoln is obviously remembered by everyone as President of the Civil War To keep the union intact, then lead the North throughout the war and then try to "bind the nation's wounds", as stated in his second inaugural speech. Furthermore, as all Americans know, Lincoln was assassinated by John Wilkes Booth just after the end of the war in 1865. Andrew Jackson (1829-1837) Martin Van Buren (1837-1841) William H. Harrison (1841) John Tyler (1841 -1845) James K. Polk (1841-1849) Zachary Taylor (1849-1850) Millard Fillmore (1850-1853) Franklin Pierce (1853-1857) James Buchanan (1857-1861) Abraham Lincoln (1861-1865) Andrew Johnson (1865-1869) This period, which has recently covered the civil war until the first part of the twentieth century, was marked by reconstruction, including the three reconstruction amendments (13, 14 and 15), the rise of Railways, expansion to the west, and wars with indigenous peoples in areas where American pioneers have been set. Events such as the Chicago Fire (1871), the first race of the Kentucky Derby (1875) The battle of Little Big Horn (1876), the Nez Perce War (1877), the opening of the Brooklyn bridge (1883), the Wounded Knee Massacre (1890) and the Panic of 1893 define this era. Towards the end, Età Gilda marked, and this was followed by the populist reforms of Theodore Roosevelt, which brought the country in the twentieth century. Ulysses S. Grant (1869-1877) Rutherford B. Hayes (1877-1881) James A. Garfield (1881) Chester A. Arthur (1881-1885) Grover Cleveland (1885-1889) Benjamin Harrison (1889-1893) Grover Cleveland (1893-1897) William McKinley (1897-1901) Theodore Roosevelt (1901-1909) Three important events dominated this period of time: First World War, the great depression of the 1930s and World War II. Between the world war, I and the great depression came the 1920s, a time of immense social change and of enormous prosperit, which everyone stopped to crack 1929, with the crash of the stock market. The town is then immersed in a forest forest of extremely high unemployment, the Dust Bowl on the large plains and many houses and corporate preclusions. Practically all Americans have been affected. Then in December 1941, the Japanese bombed the American fleet in Pearl Harbor, and the United States were attracted to the Second World War, which had devastated in Europe by the fall of 1939. The war caused the economy to finish. But the cost was high: the Second World War took the life of over 405,000 Americans in Europe and the Pacific. Franklin D. Roosevelt was president since 1932 in April 1945, when he died in charge. He led the ship of the state through two traumatic times and left a lasting mark internally with the legislation of New Deal. Truman took control when FDR died in charge and chairs the end of the Second World War in Europe and the Pacific, and made the decision to use atomic weapons on Japan to end the war. And that came out in what is called atomic and cold war, which continued until 1991 and the fall of the Soviet Union. This period is defined by peace and prosperit in the 1950s; the assassination of Kennedy in 1963, the protests of civil rights and the legislative changes of civil rights, and the Vietnam War. At the end of the 1960s they were particularly happy, with Johnson taking most of the warmth on Vietnam. The 1970s brought a watershed constitutional crisis in the form of waterfalls. Nixon resigned in 1974 after the Chamber of Representatives passed three impeachment articles against him. The years Reagan brought peace and prosperita as in the 1950s, with a popular president who presided over. This was the most recent of American history is marked by the Prosperita but also by the tragedy: the attacks of 11 September 2001, at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, including the plane lost in Pennsylvania, 2.996 lives and was the most deadly terrorist attack in history and the most horrible attack on the United States from Pearl Harbor. Terrorism and the Middle East struggle have dominatedperiod, with the wars fought in Afghanistan and Iraq shortly after September 11 and the continuous terror fears during these years. The financial crisis of 2008, later known as "Great Recession" was the worst in the United States since the beginning of the Great Depression in 1929. Since the end of 2019, the global pandemic COVID-19 became the dominant problem at home and abroad, killing more than a quarter of a million Americans and causing a domino effect that affected every aspect of life. Life.
